Provide a description of any barriers that prevented parents from participating during the previous school year. Describe the steps the school will take for the coming school year to overcome these barriers (with attention to parents/families with disabilities, limited English speakers, students living in unstable housing situations, and parents/families of migrant children) [ESEA Section 1116].

Barriers Areas	Plan of Action (Steps)
Homelessness	The counselor and registrar are the Transitional student champions of the school. Together they provide resources to the students such as school supplies and bookbags. With the partnership of Project Up-Start they provide more resources such as uniforms and food.
Unfamiliar with School System	The parent outreach liasons will meet with parents to help them familiarize with school system and portal. This includes school schedules, procedures, and safety protocols. In addition, parents will be invited to parent academy sessions.

PARENT AND FAMILY FEEDBACK

Each year, our school encourages parents and families to work in collaboration with the school to develop, review, and revise the Title I School-level Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP). The PFEP is a tool that is used to determine how well our school is partnering with you and promoting your involvement in your child's education throughout the school. Your feedback is important in helping us in continually improving the PFEP and the parent and family engagement program at our school. We have provided contact information below so that you can learn about the different ways you can be a part of this home school connection. Thank you!

COMENTARIOS DE PADRES Y FAMILIARES
Cada año, nuestra escuela alienta a los padres y familias a trabajar en colaboración con la escuela para desarrollar, revisar y revisar el Plan de participación de padres y familias (PFEP) a nivel escolar del Título I. El PFEP es una herramienta que se utiliza para determinar cómo bueno, nuestra escuela se asocia con usted y promueve su participación en la educación de su hijo en toda la escuela. Sus comentarios son importantes para ayudarnos a mejorar continuamente el PFEP y el programa de participación de padres y familias en nuestra escuela.
